

Contra Costa Welcomes Refugees, Immigrants, and All Community Members

EHSD Encourages Families and Individuals to Apply for Benefits for Which They May Be Eligible

The Employment & Human Services Department (EHSD) welcomes and serves all Contra Costa County community members and wants them to know about the benefits, services, and resources that may be available for their families.

EHSD Welcomes You to Contra Costa County is a brochure that outlines our department's many programs. Anybody, including refugees, immigrants, and all Contra Costa residents, can apply for benefits and services. The brochure has information and contact details related to health care services, food resources, jobs, housing, protective services for children and adults, and more.

In addition to English, the "EHSD Welcomes You" brochure is available in Spanish, Chinese \(traditional\), Chinese \(simplified\), Tagalog, Farsi, Korean, Vietnamese, Dari, and Pashto.

Not everyone is eligible for all programs, but many resources are in place to support, protect and empower individuals and families on their paths to self-sufficiency.

EHSD Welcomes You to Contra Costa County and other resources for immigrant community members are available on the EHSD.org Immigration page. We encourage you to forward, download, or print this information for anyone who may find it helpful.

Did You Know?

In 2019, 295,000 immigrants were living in Contra Costa.

That same year, foreign-born residents contributed nearly $25 billion (or 31 percent) of the County's total GDP.

According to the 2020 U.S. Census, Contra Costa is increasingly diverse and multicultural.
